

HANDWORK TEACHER

RICHMOND WALDORF SCHOOL seeks a part-time Handwork teacher to begin in September 2008. This individual will work with all grade levels, 1-8. Applicants should be comfortable in several areas of handwork, specifically including knitting, crocheting and hand & machine sewing. Prior teaching experience and/or Waldorf training is preferred but not required. Applicants with multi-disciplinary skills in teaching movement, music, or language will receive preferential treatment. We will consider creating a full-time position for an appropriately qualified individual. Join our growing Waldorf school, now in its twelfth year of operation in the historic, yet surprisingly progressive, city of Richmond, Virginia.

Richmond Waldorf School currently enrolls 100 students in three kindergartens and grades classes 1 through 7, as well as a parent and toddler group, our "Sprouts" program. Fall 2006 marked our expansion into the middle grades, with the goal of having a full K-8 program by 2008. We offer a complete Waldorf curriculum, including Eurythmy, Russian, German, handwork, games, woodworking, and violin.

Here you will find a collegial faculty and supportive parents, all ready to warmly and openly accept you as full member of our community whose thoughts and ideas are welcome as we grow and develop the school to its fullest potential. We offer a competitive salary and benefits package and relocation assistance. Richmond Waldorf School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, disability, national origin or sexual orientation. Minority candidates are strongly urged to apply.
