

Richmond Waldorf School seeks an early grades teacher to teach for the 2017-18 academic year beginning in September 2018. Our school is in metropolitan Richmond VA, a wonderful city that combines all of the advantages of a large city with the flavor of a small one. We recently purchased our own building, with large sunny classrooms, a gym/auditorium, and playing fields.

Our faculty has many experienced teachers with a strong anthroposophical background, and our parent body is supportive and engaged. Our current enrollment is 130 students from pre-Kindergarten through 8th Grade, but we are seeking to grow in the coming years.

We are in the process of being accredited by AWSNA and SAIS, so it's an exciting time to join our school community as we reflect on our past and prepare for our future.

We are seeking someone who has prior teaching experience (ideally in a Waldorf school) as well as completion of, or current enrollment in, Waldorf teacher training. We offer a competitive salary and benefits package, including support for professional development.

Richmond Waldorf School does not discriminate against candidates for admission or employment on the basis of race, creed, color, religious preference, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or national origin. Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

To apply, please complete the application form on our website at www.richmondwaldorf.com. Cover letter, application, and resume should be e-mailed to admin@richmondwaldorf.com
